

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	13
1. THEORETICAL-METHODOLOGICAL BASES OF ISSUES	14
1.1 Linguistic aspects considering concept of „multiword expressions“	14
1.2 Collocations in the context of English and Slovak linguistics vs. multiword expressions	25
1.3 Basic terminology and its relations	34
1.3.1 The publicistic model structure and its specificities	35
1.3.2 Terms and professionalisms in vocabulary	40
1.3.3 Evaluation lexicon and its presence in the publicistic style	44
1.4 Media communication	49
1.4.1 Media and its function in the postmodern world	49
1.4.2 Commentary as a genre of publicistic style	52
1.5 Methodological basis and objectives of research	60
1.5.1 Subject and objectives of the research and its hypotheses	60
1.5.2 Methods of research and interpretation of research material	62
1.5.3 Lexical analysis of selected texts	67
2. ANALYSIS	70
2.1 Analysis of selected texts	70
2.2 Lexical units with automation tendencies	73
2.2.1 Terminological expressions and their functions in commentaries	73
2.2.2 Conclusions to terminological expressions	94

2.2.3	Neutral fixed expressions in the texts of commentaries.....	95
2.3	Lexical units with foregrounding tendencies.....	104
2.3.1	Multiword expressions with figurative properties .	105
2.3.2	Attitudinal expressions.....	123
2.3.3	The authors' occasional expressions and neologisms	135
2.3.4	Conclusions to lexical units with persuasive tendencies	144
3.	CONCLUSIONS AND PERSPECTIVES	146
	SUMMARY	157
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	161
	ATTACHMENTS.....	177