

CALL FOR PAPERS

Economic Review of Tourism

Journal Economic Review of Tourism (ISSN 0139-8660) publishes quarterly for 50 years original and quality research articles, information and book reviews. The scope of the journal is related to tourism development in Slovakia and in the wider European context. We encourage authors focused on tourism economics, management, geography, sociology, psychology, anthropology and regional sciences to publish the articles in this traditional print journal.

The main advantages of publishing in the journal are:

- no publication fees,
- free language correction (Slovak, Czech, English),
- fast review and publication process,
- wide range of readers,
- intention of indexing in WoS and Scopus.

For more information, please visit Journal's web page.

