

ECONOMIC REVIEW OF TOURISM

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Manuscripts are accepted by the editorial board. * Articles should be of a theoretical and applicable character corresponding with the character of the journal. Titles should be clear and concise. * Articles should use scientific literature indexed in Scopus and Web of Science databases, as well as articles published in previous volumes of the journal. * Articles have to be accompanied by an abstract of 10 – 12 lines that consists of the aim of the article, used methods, main findings and conclusion. Abstract is accompanied by 3 – 5 key words and JEL Classification (www.aeaweb.org/journal/jel_class_system.html/) * The length of articles is about 10 typed pages, reviews 4 – 6 pages depending on the length of the book. Information are supposed to have 4 – 5 pages. * Text has to be typed in MS WORD, Times New Roman 12 (maximum 30 lines on a page). * Bibliographic citations are given according to ISO 690 and must include all necessary data. * References to literature are added at the end of the article and given in alphabetical order. * Pictures, graphs and tables are labelled in numerical order. Mathematical expressions and figures should be typed in clear and obvious way.

Structure of the article: Title, author/authors, abstract and key words in English, JEL Classification * introduction * aim, material and methodology * results and discussion * conclusion * key words (3-5) * grant support * references. The author will give the exact address of his/her workplace; e-mail.

Reviews of articles are anonymous.

Please follow the paper's template.