Conference goal:

The international scientific conference “Economic and monetary policy in the context of current development in the European integration processes” is a follow-up of regular conferences traditionally organized by the Faculty of Economics in Banská Bystrica and the Representation of the European Commission in Slovakia in cooperation with sponsoring partners. The goal of the conference is to support the scientific and the academic debate and knowledge exchange in current issues and economic policies, particularly within EU member states.

Plenary Sessions:

- A: Economic and monetary policy in current conditions in Europe
- B: Competitiveness, economic growth and business survival (APVV -15-0322)<sup>1</sup>

*The conference organizer reserves the right to decide on the selection of the proceedings in the conference agenda and the proceedings.
Therefore we kindly ask the speakers not to deviate from the conference theme.*
