

TITLE OF THE PAPER - TIMES NEW ROMAN 14, BOLD

NAME AND SURNAME

Title, name and surname, place of work of the author, telephone, e-mail

Abstract

Abstract of the paper should be between 5 to 10 lines and should succinctly capture the contents of the entire paper. Use style: Times New Roman 12, italic. Write the abstract and paper in a style consistent with this document (font sizes, etc.).

Key words: (Times New Roman 12, Italic)

Introduction - the title of the section in Times New Roman 14, bold

The format and extent of the contribution: the length of the paper is a maximum of 6 pages (including the references, figures, tables and appendices). Layout: the inner edge 3.5 cm, 1.5 cm outer, upper and lower 2.5 cm: single-spaced, right justified, indent the first line at 0.5 cm, gap under paragraph 4pt.

Figures and tables centered in the page. Tables and figures to be numbered sequentially. Quote the source under the table and graph. Text alignment to left, font: Times New Roman 12.

The titles of the next sections in Times New Roman 14, bold

The text in font: Times New Roman 12

Sub-section title in Times New Roman 12, bold

The text in font: Times New Roman 12

Final section “Conclusion” in Times New Roman 14, bold

The text in font: Times New Roman 12

A brief summary of paper, together with policy implication or contribution or other implications etc.

References

References quote the standards according to ISO 690, respectively. ISO 690-2

Examples:

MEDVEĎ, J. - NEMEC, J. - ORVISKÁ, M. - ZIMKOVÁ, E. 2005. Public Finance. Bratislava: SPRINT, 2005. 464 s. ISBN 80-89085-32-6.

EIFERT, B., GELB, A. 2008. Reforming aid: Toward more predictable, performance-based financing for development. In: World Development, 2008, vol. 36, pp. 2067-2081.